

February 29,
Psalms 29,
The Lord sat as King at the flood

Morning prayer:

Lord, do I believe your voice is over the storms in my life?

Sin starts with unbelief, genuine prayer always breaks the grip of unbelief.... And when we are weak in prayer or sincerity - we have the Holy Spirit to help us in our weakness. He brings his word to bear in our heart and makes it sharp and powerful, discerning thoughts and intents that otherwise would cripple us with insincerity. When we don't know how to pray, he'll do the praying in us. So trust the Holy Spirit to cause God's voice in his word to rule over your storm today. Both the noise and the upheaval will be silenced through his still small voice that upholds all things by the word of its power.

Afternoon prayer:

Lord, am fearful about man's judgment over me more than yours?

You the God who's voice commands the megavolts with absolute power and precision. Yet it is the gentleness of that same voice sends forth from on high and draws me out of many waters. You are such a God of amazing contrast - this leave me absolute awe and wonder.

Evening prayer:

Lord, do I attribute my peace and strength to outward circumstances, or to your mercy and power?

Do I see myself like Noah in the ark risen up above the Flood singing glory to to you in your temple?

Yes Jesus thank you that you are my Ark and Temple!

Thank you Lord, for sending forth from on high and drawing us out of many waters!
