

March 1, Psalms 30 vs 1-5,
Joy comes in the morning

Morning prayer:

Lord, am I rejoicing in the fact that my enemies do not rejoice over me as much now, as the day I came to know you? If not, why?

We need to keep moving on, and praising God more and more... Because when we stop short we forget that we've been purge from our former sins.

"9 For he who lacks these qualities is blind or short-sighted, having forgotten his purification from his former sins. 10 Therefore, brethren, be all the more diligent to make certain about His calling and choosing you; for as long as you practice these things, you will never stumble;" - 2 Pet 1:9-10

Afternoon prayer:

Lord, Is the fact that I've been rescued from a horrible pit readily on my lips to speak and sing to all that are in my path today?

God blesses the preaching of his word to save sinners. How can they hear without a preacher? Will you be the one to take the message to the lost in your path today?

"16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek." - Rom 1:16

Evening prayer:

Lord, have I ever stopped and thought why your mercies are new every morning, and why weeping only endures for night time, yet joy comes in the morning?

For some weeping will endure for a lifetime and eternity. So the reason his mercies are new every morning is because we've passed from death of life - And now nothing can separate us from his love.

"37 But in all these things we overwhelmingly conquer through Him who loved us. 38 For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, 39 nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord." - Rom 8:37-37

All the difference is Christ, because we were in the flesh, in the world, children of the devil and headed to hell; now, we are in Christ, seated in heavenly places above all the powers, now nothing can separate us from his mercies. What a salvation!
