

March 13, Psalms 35 (overview),
Who is my greatest enemy?

Definition:

Persons, voices and attitudes that exploits my weaknesses with deception, to steal what is eternally valuable to me and those I love.

Victory over our the enemy is:

The Strongest Person, the most Powerful Voice, the Purest Attitude protecting me with Truth at my weakest point to give and preserve what is it eternally valuable to me and to all those I love.

A application:

Prayerfully read over Psalms 35 with these definitions in mind.

Knowing that our enemies are the world, the flesh and the Devil.

The world most often falls into the category of persons (or intimidating, groupthink) , the flesh falls into the category of attitudes (or habits are thinking), and the devil falls into the category of voices (or intrusive thoughts).
