

March 21, Psalms 37 vs 23-28, God's provides for the righteous

Morning prayer:

Lord, thank you for gripping my hands so tightly that when I fall down, I don't get cast head long - because you grab me. You know, and delight in the path that I am taking today... Because you've gone before me as the Good Shepherd. I trust that you establish each of my steps. I will turn to you each hour and recognize your hand guiding me and holding me up, I will feed on your word and not get weary, because I know you delight in this path.

Afternoon prayer:

What an amazing thing, Lord that you not only care for me, but for my children, too. I have wasted so much time worrying about provision... But you have always taken care of us! More than that you have given us an abundance to be able to give by investing your kingdom in a way that will have a eternal impact. Thank you for blessing us with a godly heritage in this nation, and in our families as that applies.

Evening prayer:

Lord show me that you've preserved me not just in this life, but for life eternal. Show me the people who don't know that they can have a Father who provides for them and for their children... Give me the compassion to speak to them about how they can become children of God Through Jesus Christ.
