

March 6, Psalms 31 vs 14-24,
But as for me, I trust in You

(Inspired from the transition between verse 13 and 14 of Psalms 31... and the truth that is not my faith, but THE FAITH of Christ lives in me)

Lord, help me to be willing to trust you in the midst of my trial relationally, that makes me feel "as a forgotten person out of mind" an object that is canceled disregarded by those I love. I often asked you to remove this trial... And I say, "if you do, then I'll trust you". Yet I want to join the Holy Spirit, who is speaking inside of me - as he did inside of you, Christ - "But as for me, O Lord, I say, " You are my God".

"20 I have been crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself up for me." - Gal 2:20

I Lord, when I get discouraged today and start looking at the level of my faith - I will quote this verse and realize it's not me who lives any longer; but you who is living in me, and the life that I am now living is by THE FAITH of the son of God.
